

Annus Mirabilis

John Dryden

David Harris

The musical score is for four choirs, each with a single note at the beginning and end of the phrase. The notes are as follows:

Choir	Initial Note	Final Note
Choir 1	C4	E5
Choir 2	C4	B3
Choir 3	B3	E5
Choir 4	C4	B3

The lyrics for each choir are:

- Choir 1: Ah eee
- Choir 2: (oo) (ee)
- Choir 3: oo ee
- Choir 4: oo oh

From Annus Mirabilis (1666)

Instructed ships shall sail to quick Commerce;
By which remotest Regions are alli'd:
Which makes one City of the Universe,
Where some may gain, and all may be suppli'd.

Then, we upon our Globe's last verge shall go,
And view the Ocean leaning on the sky:
From thence our rolling Neighbours shall we know,
And on the Lunar world securely pry.

Singers improvise rhythm, volume, timbre on the given notes.
In addition, singers may improvise space sounds as they choose.

A reader speaks the text when they choose. It need not be in time.
Singers may echo words of their choice as well.
